Banquet Speaker: Thomas P. Barrett at 7:30 p.m. speaking on:

*"The Historic Bridges of Ohio"

Thomas P. Barrett, Historic Bridge and Byway Program Manager with the ODOT Office of Environmental Services in Columbus Ohio will bring his preservation experiences and historical insights of many of Ohio's most interesting bridge structures.

Tom has been with the Ohio Department of Transportation for 22 years as a Cultural Resources Specialist, specializing in federally-funded bridge projects. Tom manages and promotes an award-winning state DOT Historic Bridge Program, which has inventoried thousands of structures for streamlined replacement and identified about 500 structures that are worthy of preservation and protection.

In addition to his work with bridges, Tom serves as the Scenic Byways Coordinator for the 27 scenic and historic routes certified by the state and the Federal Highway Administration. In the last two years, he has worked to help designate the Granville Scenic Byway and the Johnny Appleseed Historic Byway.

In the private sector, Tom conducts historic resource studies for energy and cell tower projects throughout the Midwest.

In his spare time, he enjoys family bike rides with his wife and two daughters, and tinkering with classic cars, trucks and motorcycles.
