

THE GREAT STONE VIADUCT SOCIETY AND THE BELLAIRE PUBLIC LIBRARY
PRESENT THE 2019 WINTER LECTURE SERIES

The Marietta Flood

by Roger Pickenpaugh

author of River on a Rampage:
The 1936 Flood from Chester to Marietta

Wednesday, February 6, at 6 pm
Bellaire Public Library Activity Room

Roger Pickenpaugh recently retired after a thirty-year teaching career at Shenandoah Middle School in Sarahsville, Ohio.

His books include studies of outstanding weather events in Ohio and writings on the Civil War. His first Civil War book was Rescue by Rail: Troup Transfer and the Civil War in the West, 1863.

In recent years he has studied Civil War prisons. His first book on that topic was Camp Chase and the Evolution of Union Prison Policy. This was a study of a major Ohio prison.

Last year, the University of Alabama Press published Captives in Gray: The Civil War Prisons of the Union. Pickenpaugh is now completing a companion volume entitled Captives in Blue.

Pickenpaugh lives in Noble County Ohio with his wife and co-researcher, Marion.